

SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIETY OF
HAND THERAPISTS

SASHT GAUTENG presents
An evening course on the anatomy
of the upper limb
with presentations by:
Dr. Tim Pikor – elbow anatomy
Dr. Grant Biddulph – wrist anatomy
Dr. Chetan Patel – flexor and extensor
tendon anatomy

This course is open to all SASHT and non-SASHT members to This course is aimed at improving your knowledge of clinical anatomy of the upper limb to aid in clinical practice. It will be a refresher of the anatomy of the elbow, wrist and fingers as well as providing information on the mechanism of injury and clinical relevance for rehabilitation.

DATE: 10th of April 2019 and Time: 17:30 to 21:15

Venue: Off Nicol in Bryanston

Kindly Register By the 5th of April 2019.

To Register on line: CLICK HERE

Limited to 12 Spaces only

CPD Points have been applied

Workshop rates are as follows:
R450 for SASHT members

---

R550 for non-SASHT members

---

Light dinner will be provided

Program

18:15 – 19:15:

Elbow anatomy including dislocations of the elbow and clinical relevance of rehab post injury.

19:15 – 20:15:

Wrist anatomy including carpal fractures and dislocations as well as carpal instability.

20:15 – 21:15:

Flexor and extensor tendon anatomy – why things go wrong with tendon injuries and clinical relevance to rehab.